WOMEN'S FUND OF DOOR COUNTY TO PRESENT TALES OF OUR LIVES APRIL 12

Sturgeon Bay, WIS., March 4, 2025— The Women's Fund of Door County will present its 12th annual Tales of Our Lives, in collaboration with Northern Sky Theater, on Saturday, April 12 at Northern Sky Theater's Gould Theater.

This year six storytellers will take the stage to share their stories. Each tale will be accompanied by the music of Cathy Grier and will revolve around a unique experience, relationship, or life lesson that has left a profound mark.

"Now, more than ever, it is important for us to share our stories so that we can find points of connection and inspiration," says Lisa Harper, Women's Fund of Door County board member and Tales of Our Lives co-chair and story slammer. "It has been a unique experience preparing to tell my story at this year's Tales of our Lives. I hope that my story will resonate with the audience and inspire others to share their own stories."

This year's storytellers include:

- Allyson Fleck, Executive Director and Assistant Artistic Director, Midsummer's Music, Sister Bay
- Beth Hudak, Director of Community Engagement, House of Hope, Green Bay
- Jodi Rose Gonzales, Artist and Art Therapist, Jodi Rose Studio, Sturgeon Bay
- Lisa Harper, Tales of our Lives co-chair and Executive Director, Peninsula Music Festival, Ephraim
- melaniejane, Artist and Owner, Holiday Music Motel, Sturgeon Bay

- Mona Christensen, Executive Director Emeritus, Birch Creek Music Performance Center, Egg Harbor

Storytelling begins at 7pm and will include a brief intermission. A reception will follow the performances.

Tickets cost $30 each and can be purchased directly from Northern Sky Theater's Box Office beginning March 10. The Women's Fund of Door County looks forward to an evening of inspiration and connection.
